Review Questions

- 1. How was the offering of the red heifer different from all others?
- 2. Why did the heifer have to be red, without blemish and never been broken to bear the yoke?
- 3. What power drew Christ toward the cross of Calvary?
- 4. Describe where the red heifer was taken and by whom?
- 5. Who killed the heifer? What did the priest do with the blood?
- 6. Write a paragraph telling about the ceremony when a man was found slain.
- 7. Why was the red heifer offered without the camp?
- 8. Why was the red heifer taken to a rough valley, so rocky and utterly worthless that it had never been plowed?
- 9. What did the casting in the fire of the cedar wood, hyssop, and scarlet thread represent?
- 10. After the body of the heifer was burned to ashes, what must an uncontaminated person (who had not touched the dead) do?
- 11. Why was the ceremony so elaborate and detailed?
- 12. Tell why some of the ashes were placed in pure running water, and a ceremonially clean person, dipping a bunch of hyssop and cedar in the ashes and water, then sprinkled the tent, the articles within the tent, and the people.
- 13. Fill in the blanks: "These typical _____, like a great _____, throw _____ upon the _____"

“Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed
with corruptible things, as silver and gold,
from your vain conversation
received by tradition from your fathers;
But with the precious blood of Christ,
as of a lamb without blemish
and without spot.”

I Peter 1:19-20
