

Temcat Mission Update: August 2023

Greetings Brothers and Sisters;

This month has gone by so quickly and the work has been so intense that here we are into August before I realized I was late reporting to you dear friends of the Mission! May you all be rejoicing in the Lord with hope and courage from Him! We all need it in these troubled times when it seems the devil is pulling out all stops to confuse and distract God's people and draw them away into paths that may seem right, but the ends thereof are the ways of death! Again we extend our heartfelt thanks to all who remember the Mission in your prayers and share your gifts of love. We pray daily that the Lord will send showers of blessings of all kinds for all of you. May the Lord keep you all and your dear ones under His sheltering wings.

Invitations and Adventures.

We told last month of the special invitation for Pastor T to speak at a full camp session to be held July 23-Aug 2. We temporarily brought back the team from their work at Chishawasha for a break, so both Ps T and Ps Maxwell could attend this camp-meeting where Ps T was the main speaker. We thank the Lord we did that as most incredibly this turned out to be a confrontation with the occult on a level that even the Pastors had not faced before. First day the crowd was estimated at 8,000. As Pastor T was closing the evening service, a young lady began to scream from the audience something like "Let me tell it!!" Deacons and her mother tried to walk her away from the service but she continued crying loudly. Ps T summoned that she be brought to the front, as all could hear the noise of her screams as they could not calm her. He simply said on that mic, if the person is needing prayers come to the front and all elders and pastors come to the front too and those needing special prayer please come to the front too. Hundreds if not thousands flocked to the front and he had prayers for all. She kept weeping and Pastor began to sing the precious hymn, 'There is a Fountain filled with blood' and called her to join him so he could comfort her. She reached out for the mic and as the other people returned to their seats, she began to confess the most horrible account for almost an hour! The people were glued to their seats in fear as they listened. She wanted to get free from the Satanism cult she was involved with and she warned that there were other occultists on the grounds. She had occult objects she wanted to be rid of and Pastor planned the next morning to deal with the burning of these things. Now there were I think 17 conference pastors attending, and the job was turned over to them. 2 days later nothing had been done but they claimed to be fasting and praying. Well Pastor warned of the urgency of this and it was to be done the next morning. As he was closing the night service there came a sudden storm which caused a quick prayer and all fled to shelter. The next morning all pastors but 2 had fled the camp as well as quite a few people. Pastor asked the 2 if he could now take over and deal with it? They agreed, and he told them as they seemed fearful, they need not take part, which they gladly accepted. The job was done, and at evening meeting he spoke of the danger of these occult charms and called for any who wanted to destroy their charms to stand. Much to his shock most of the congregation stood! He told them that they would burn the items that night, and for all who wished, to bring them and be helped to destroy them. Turned out it went on all night. Many who were too shy, just dropped them by the church door and in the morning, the pastors walked around picking them from the ground and burning them. The lady who had confessed is now studying with the Pastors as well as a ten year old child that was devil possessed, who was brought by her parents for help. She has been freed and is being taught also. The tragic report came that 2 pastors that had fled the camp were each in car accidents in separate places, each drove into trees. One was struck blind. Pastor was called to visit him in the hospital. He confessed he was a Satanist, intending to kill, but sadly he refused to repent or give up his occult objects. When discharged, he was travelling to a shrine to plead that his sight be restored, but he died on the way. Please keep the mission in your prayers! This weekend the Pastors head out for the second special camp-meeting, this one is further away and for 2 weeks.

Chishawasha Update:

There had been 4 women gone missing while the team was there. Police were investigating, even with a tracking dog, but no clues. We knew it was occult activity and were praying much for their safe return! First one came back and seemed insane but safe. Then 2 were found naked at the church shade, the MMVs covered them, but the police took them for questioning, then thinking they were insane took them to the psych hospital in Harare. Police called Pastor to please visit them. He did so, prayed with them and assured the doctors that they were not insane, it was a spiritual situation and true what they were saying. We prayed much that they would be released and allowed to return home. They did arrive just as the team was leaving. But the church leaders were well able to deal with it. Then finally the fourth lady came home! Pastor Maxwell and the MMVs returned on the bus the 18th for their break. Now just as I was writing this I received a report from the leader at Chishawasha, "I am eager to let you know that we are doing well and all the women are home and sane. No one with a mental problem and no one dead, but rumor spreading is that they are preaching to people to attend our church telling people that we worship a living God whom no witch or sangoma can challenge. Two of them are still coming for prayer band with us. And we are so glad that God heard us and is blessing the work. The chief himself at times comes to gather with us, which had never happened before. It's just amazing. Thank you for this. As we struggle through we are glad and have the testimonials that our God protects better than the charms." Certainly that is true! Praise the Lord for all His wonderful works!
